

Pietro Anders Calogero
curriculum vitae

Ph.D. in City and Regional Planning, University of California, Berkeley.

2644B Hillegass Avenue
Berkeley, California 94704
Mobile: (415) 994-1810
Email: pietro@calogero.us

EDUCATION

Doctorate in City and Regional Planning, University of California, Berkeley (2004-2011).

Designated Emphasis in Global Metropolitan Studies.

Outside emphasis: "Sociology of development and globalization," Peter Evans, supervisor.

Inside emphasis: "Intersections of planning theory and radical cultural criticism."

Dissertation: Planning Kabul: The politics of urbanization in Afghanistan.

Co-recipient of the 2011 Gill-Chin Lim Award for Best International Dissertation in Planning

Master of City and Regional Planning, University of California, Berkeley (1992-1994).

Emphasis in Urban Design.

Thesis: The urban design of an emerging city: Analysis of the ruin complex at Chaco Canyon, New Mexico.

Master of Architecture, University of California, Berkeley (1992-1994).

Emphases in Housing and Urban Design.

Professional Report: "Analysis and recommendations for development adjacent to the Ninth Circuit Courthouse, San Francisco." Client: Government Services Administration.

Bachelor of Geography, University of California, Berkeley (1984-1988).

Emphases in Physical and Urban Geography.

PUBLICATIONS

2011. "Kabul cosmopolitan: geopolitical empire from the planner's viewpoint."

Planning Theory 10(1), 66-78.

2009. "Dilemmas in a general theory of fieldwork." Berkeley Planning Journal 22(3) pp.2-8.

2008. "Urban Planning in Kabul." Volume 15(supplement) pp. 7-9.

1992. Cartographer for "The Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organization: Diplomacy's cutting edge." Whole Earth Review 77(Winter) pp. 32-36.

1992. "Moore, Lyndon, Turnbull, and Whitaker: A Celebration." CED News 10 (1) pp. 6-7.

PROFESSIONAL AND TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lecturer, San Francisco State University, Department of Urban Studies, Spring 2012. Two courses: Cities in a Global Society; and Law, Politics, and the Urban Environment.

Lecturer and Studio Instructor, [IN]City intensive studio, Summer 2011.

Lead Instructor: Karen Frick.

Graduate Student Instructor, "Introduction to city and regional planning," Spring 2011.

Instructor: Richard LeGates.

Graduate Student Instructor, “Economic analysis for city and regional planning,” Fall 2010.
Instructor: Mark Wolfe.

Co-Instructor of record with Gabriel Arboleda, “Housing: An international survey,” Spring 2010.
UC Berkeley College of Environmental Design.

Graduate Student Instructor, “Global Poverty: Challenges and hopes in the new millennium,” Fall 2009. Professor: Ananya Roy.

Graduate Student Instructor, “The city: Theories and methods in urban studies,” Spring 2008.
Professor: Ananya Roy.

Instructor in Urban Theory and Urban Planning, Kabul University, Spring and Fall 2007.
Funded by the World Bank Institute through the Aga Khan Trust for Culture.

Lecturer in Planning Theory and Urban Economics, Kabul Polytechnic University, Fall 2007.

Consultant to Technical Deputy Mayor Dr. Hassan Abdullahi, Fall 2007.
Spatial planning for rapid urban development at the southwestern edge of Kabul.

Graduate student instructor, “Introduction to development studies,” Fall 2006.
Professor: Michael Watts.

Sustainable Tourism Development Studio, Krabi Province, Thailand, Summer 2005.
Joint strategic planning studio with architecture and policy students at Chulalongkorn University, hosted by the Thai Public Policy Foundation.

Graduate Student Instructor, “Introduction to city and regional planning,” Spring 2005.
Professor: Frederick Collignon.

Graduate Student Instructor, “Urbanization in developing countries,” Fall 2004.
Professor: Ananya Roy.

Consultant to PADCO Inc, on-site in Kabul, Afghanistan, October 2003.
Urban Typology and Social/Demographic Survey Analysis of Kabul in preparation for Structured Urban Plan.

Partner, Epicenter Design, El Cerrito, California, August 2002 through March 2004.
Remodel, expansion, and relocation of houses in San Francisco, Palo Alto, and El Cerrito.

Project Designer, Powell & Partners Architects, San Francisco, October 1998-August 2002.
Supervised permitting and construction of 193 units of HOPE VI housing.

Project Designer, Bechtel Civil, San Francisco, July through October 1998.
Design development of 'Magic World' amusement park facilities in Dubai, U.A.E.

Founder and Artistic Director, Gusto Ensemble, September 1996 through September 1997.
Produced l'Imago, a Commedia Dell'Arte scenario, in the 1997 San Francisco Fringe Festival. Performed as Arlecchino.

Project Designer, Calthorpe Associates, May 1995 through September 1996.
University Avenue Specific Plan, Sonoma-Marin Transit and Land Use Study, Fort Collins Downtown Plan.

Graduate Student Instructor, “Introduction to Environmental Design,” Fall 1993.
Instructor: Lisa Findley.

Urban Design Intern, Skidmore Owings & Merrill, San Francisco, Summer 1993.
Participant in the Saigon South Competition (awarded to SOM);
Internship Project: Campus-wide wheelchair accessibility study, U.C. Santa Cruz.

Graduate Student Instructor, “Environmental Planning Studio,” Spring 1993.
Instructor: Timothy Duane.

Illustrator for Allan Jacobs, 1992-1993.
Completion of drawings and layout studies for Great Streets (MIT Press, 1993).

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION

Licensed Architect in the State of California, Number C29248

PUBLIC SERVICE

Reviewer, Journal of Planning Education Research (2005).

Founding Board Member, Afghan Friends Network, San Francisco (2002-present).

Focus on providing training to teachers in Ghazni, Afghanistan.

Vestry member, St. Gregory of Nyssa Episcopal Church, San Francisco (1997-2002).

Developed communications program and oversaw initial website development.

President, College of Environmental Design Student Council (1993-1994). Dedicated funds for recruitment of underrepresented students at the high-school level for application to the college.

Board Member and Finance Committee Member, University Students Housing Cooperative, Berkeley (1989-1990). Participated in financial management through a major internal crisis of the 1,400-member cooperative.

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Gill-Chin Lim Award for Best Dissertation in International Planning, awarded by the Global Planning Education Interest Group of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, 2011. Co-recipient with Andrew Rumbach.

Mellon Travel Grant Awards for the AAG and ACSP conferences in 2009.

Dean's Normative Time Fellowship for dissertation writing, 2008-2009 academic year.

William T. & Helen S. Halstead Scholarship, 2008.

al-Falah Fellowship for Dissertation Research, Center for Middle Eastern Studies, 2007.

Foreign Language Area Studies fellowship for Persian (Farsi), 2005-2006 academic year.

PUBLIC LECTURES AND PRESENTATIONS

Co-Organizer with Smita Srinivas of session on "Planning, Nation-States, and the Question of Scale" at the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning conference, Salt Lake City, 2011.

Organizer of the session "Biopolitics of transnational planning" at the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning conference, Minneapolis, 2010.
Hosted by the Global Planning Education Interest Group.

Invited participant in 'Social suffering and the city' session, American Anthropological Association conference, Philadelphia, 2009.
Presentation: "Wedding halls and the productivity of socially-embedded debt."

Invited speaker, Asian Planning Schools Association, Ahmedabad, India. 2009.
Presentation: "Plural rationalities in policy decisionmaking."

Invited participant in 'Urbanisms and planning theory' symposium sponsored by Planning Theory journal at the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning conference, Washington, D.C., 2009.
Presentation: "Cosmopolitanism off the map: Kabuli culture and emergent urbanisms of Central and South Asia."

Presenter and session chair at the Association of European Schools of Planning conference, University of Liverpool, United Kingdom, 2009.
Presentation: "Rethinking basic needs: a critique of the influence of Maslow's hierarchy in aid policy."

Invited speaker, Foreign Policy Association of Walnut Creek February 2009.
Presentation: "Afghanistan and Pakistan: Background and perspective on the current political tensions between them."

Presenter at the Association of American Geographers conference, Las Vegas, 2009.
"Citizenship and urban space in the extreme edge: ethnicized clientelism in Kabul."

Invited speaker, International Area Studies Summer Institute for the Global Generation, U.C. Berkeley, 2008. Presentation: "Fundamentalism and Urbanization."

Invited speaker, San Francisco Planning and Urban Research Association, San Francisco, 2008.
Presentation: "Wedding halls of Kabul: social debt and the mitigation of risk."

Invited participant, SOYUZ Conference, U.C. Berkeley, April 2008.

Conference topic: 'Contemporary critical inquiry through the lens of post-socialism.'
Presentation: "Nostalgia as appropriation: contested modernity expressed through urban planning in Kabul, Afghanistan."

Invited speaker, Berkeley-Stanford City Group, February 2008.

Session topic: 'Citizen Spaces?Politics/Evictions/Rights.'
Presentation: "Liquefaction: struggles over rights to urban space and the destabilization of the Afghan regime."

Invited speaker, Center for Policy and Human Development, Kabul University, October 2007.

Presentation: "Urbanization and Human Development."

Invited speaker, Conference on Disaster Preparation and Response hosted by the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan, Inter-Continental Hotel, Kabul, August 2007.

Presentation: "Political consequences of a failure to prepare."

Invited speaker, Associated European Schools of Planning conference, Naples, Italy, July 2007.

Presentation: "Planning on contested ideological terrain."

Invited speaker, seminar on 'Planning and justice in a post-9/11 world,' Department of City and Regional Planning, U.C. Berkeley, October 2003.

Presentation: "Urban planning in Kabul: notes from the field."

Graduate Keynote Speaker, College of Environmental Design, Berkeley, May 1994.

Presentation: "Design as synthesis, design as the concretization of rights."